Doin' What Comes Naturally

Based on the life and lyrics of Irving Berlin

If the dog days of summer have got you down, there's a performance at the Marion Art Center that's guaranteed to lift your spirits. "Doin' What Comes Naturally," an original musical revue based on the life and lyrics of Irving Berlin, kept the audience smiling, whistling and singing along to classic songs such as "White Christmas," "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Easter Parade," "God Bless America," "Puttin' on the Ritz" to name just a few. "This is the liveliest and most fun thing we've ever done," said Paul Sardinha, who directed and conceived the idea.

Irving Berlin, who has been called one of the "greatest weavers of musical spells," created over 3,000 songs, yet never learned to play the piano properly. "This is really about the history of America," said Marion Art Center director Wendy Bidstrup. Along with "God Bless America," Berlin wrote patriotic songs like "How Deep is the Ocean," "Always," and "What'll I do..." as well as film scores "Cheek to Cheek," and many more. After a grand-slam entrance with the hit "There's no business like show business," by the cast, Mr. Sardinha kept the audience entertained with his hysterical version of "My Wife's Gone to the Country-Hurrah!Hurrah!"

After singing the 1909 version he updated the song much to the audience's delight. The 1995 version goes a little differently and is from the wife's point of view. "I've come back from the country-Aha! Aha! Now I see things clearly, while the cat's away the mouse will play, Aha!"

Berlin, whose real name is Israel Balin, wrote the song immediately after chatting with an old friend who happily told him his wife went-where else but-to the country. His friend wasn't smiling later though when his wife divorced him.

The actors sang in harmony; each voice complemented the next. The songs were interspersed with vignettes, dance numbers and skits that showcased the versatility and talents of Berlin and the Marion Art Center cast.

Sheryl Miller, who has returned to the Marion Art Center after a five-year absence, mesmerized the audience with her unique contralto voice. One of the most touching songs she sang was, "Count Your Blessings, instead of sheep. If you're worried and you can't sleep, count your blessings instead of sheep..."

Sheila Furtado blew away the audience with the jazzy, toe tapping, "Pack your sins up and go to the devil." "Oxygen, oxygen," she said as she ran back stage. She's an accomplished singer and actress and is making her second appearance at the Marion Art Center.

All decked out, Brett Outchcunis and Scott Simpkin dazzled everyone dancing and singing to "Puttin' on the Ritz." Mr. Outchcunis, who choreographed "Puttin' on the Ritz," is a sophomore attending the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, majoring in communications. He's been involved in the Marion Art Center for three years.

Scott Simpkin made his debut at the Marion Art Center and has been heard on stage at University of Mass, Dartmouth in Oklahoma, The Music Man and as The Phantom in last summer's cabaret. He sang "The Girl I Love is on a Magazine Cover, they've painted her just for me." The women in the musical pranced across stage, popping their heads out of "magazine covers" such as Vogue, McCalls, and Harpers. Ms. Miller appeared on the cover of the Farmer's Almanac, blackened teeth, farmer's hat and all.

Then there were the familiar Broadway Show songs from the 1940s such as "Anything you can do I can do better," sung by Ms. Donna Ramos-Wirzburger and Mr. Sardinha. The two ended in a show-down, trying to outdo one another, naturally.

"Anything you can sing I can sing higher," sang Ms. Wirzburger. They went back and forth for a little while, until Mr. Sardinha topped it off with quite a high note that probably could've shattered some wine glasses.

Anne Schenck, a talented musician, singer and comedienne, added fun and pizazz to the show singing the title song. Other songs performed were "Let's Face the Music and Dance," "You're Just in Love," "Blue Skies," "Snookey Ookums," "Sisters," and "How About Me?" Other favorites were, "I Got the Sun in the Morning," Steppin' Out with My Baby," "This is the Army Mr. Jones," and "Love Didn't Do You Right." The cast captured the audience and the show was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Corinne Peck played the piano for the production, Christopher LeBlanc was the lightboard operator and Rachel Beard was the follow spot operator. All dialogue segments were written by Sheila Furtado. Reservations are recommended. Please call 748-1266. Tickets are $10 for Marion Art Center members and $12.50 for nonmembers. The production will resume at 8:00 pm on July 21 and 22.

The man, the legend, the music

Berlin was the fabulously popular Russianborn American composer of hundreds of songs that became the musical conscience of the United States. "Izzy" as he was called, got a job as a busboy and in time graduated to the role of a "singing waiter" in Chinatown . He learned to improvise on the bar piano and at the age of 19, wrote the song," Marie from Sunny Italy." Because of a printing error, his name on the song appeared as Berlin instead of Balin. He was married in 1912, but lost his young bride to typhoid, contracted on their honeymoon in Havana, Cuba. He wrote a lyric ballad in her memory, "When I lost you," which sold a million copies. He never learned to read or write music and composed most of his songs in F-sharp major for the convenience of fingering the black keys of the scale. Berlin was drafted into the U.S. Army but didn't have to serve in military action. In the army he wrote a musical revue, "Yip, Yip, Yaphank," which contained one of his most famous tunes, "God Bless America."

original show, but returned to glory when songster Kate Smith performed it in 1938. The song became an unofficial American anthem. In 1925, when he was 37, he met Ellin Mackay, the daughter of the millionaire, and proposed to her. The two eventually married, even though her father threatened to disinherit her if she married a Jewish immigrant. Berlin, himself was a millionaire. The "yellow press" of New York devoted columns upon columns to the romance. When the stocks fell, it was Berlin who helped his father-in-law during the financial debacle of the 1920s. They were married for 62 years, until Ellin passed on. Berlin was extremely generous with his enormous earnings. "God Bless America," brought in over $673,939 in royalties, all of which was donated to the Boy and Girl Scouts of America. "White Christmas," which Berlin wrote for a motion picture, "The Holiday Inn," became a sentimental hit among American Troops stationed in tropical bases in the Pacific during World War II. In 1954, he received the Congressional Medal of Honor for his patriotic songs. He died at the age of 101.

Ms. Adams said at this time, no police officers are designated to put up speed limit signs. Someone from the state has to train and teach Safety Officer Paul Magee about the speed zone. She added that was a long process, but for now the Highway Surveyor put up "Slow" signs.

the last Town Meeting for the project. Mr. Mahoney said the town needs to gather specifications for the project before they go to bid. Mr. Cote noted there's a chance a state funded program would reimburse the town for up to 90 percent of the bill. Selectmen were undecided when they would hold a town meeting to appropriate the money. When asked when the meeting would be, Mr. Mahoney wouldn't release the date in front of the press because he said they were still undecided on when the meeting would be. "We need to discuss this," Mr. Mahoney said.

At 8:00 pm, Selectmen met with Ms.

Josephine Pannell from the Council on Aging in regards to a wage increase for the part-time coordinator of the Council on Aging and for a substitute part-time senior van driver. Ms. Pannell said the coordinator was doing a great job and deserved a 10 percent raise. "I think the position warrants more money," Ms. Pannell said. Although Selectmen agreed with her, they voted to give the coordinator over a three percent raise. She will make $6.75 and hour now. Selectmen also voted to hire a

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

As president of the Old Rochester Track Foundation, people are constantly asking me "How's the track coming?" I would like to provide an update of our attempts to provide funding for a track at Old Rochester Regional High School. Up to date, we have raised almost $44,000 and received permission to use up to $10,000 from the ORR School Committee for the design of the new facility. The architectural firm of Moriece & Gary, an extremely qualified landscape architectural firm from Boxborough, has been hired to provide the foundation and the school district with the track design. Meetings have already been held with track advisory members and school officials to determine our needs and work is under way for the design. By the opening of school, we hope to have not only a design, but a model of the proposed new facility for all to see. It is the goal of the foundation to have a track for the ORR athletes, the Mattapoisett Track Club and the entire tri-town community to use sometime in the Spring of 1996.

The ultimate design will determine the final costs, but it is estimated we need between $150,000 and $200,000 to provide the type of facility that will bring the ORR track up to the level of others in the South Coast Conference and throughout the state. In order for this to become a reality, it is going to take a joint effort from private fund-raising groups, the ORR School District, and the three towns that will benefit from such a facility. The Old Rochester Track Foundation is continuing its fund raising efforts and will do so as long as needed, but we can not build this facility by ourselves. In our presentations to the ORR School Committee, we have been told they need to know there is wide-spread support for the new facility in order to include funds for such in school budgets or building requests to the towns. Selectmen of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester also need to know of the support for the track in order for us to be considered for any funds that may become available.

We are asking anyone who desires to help us in our efforts to take the time to write or call your school committee representative and your local Selectmen to express your support for the track facility. They need to hear the community recognizes the urgent need for a new track and will support them in any effort they make to provide the needed funds. Donations can also be made to the ORR Track Fund at P.O. Box 674, Mattapoisett, MA 02739. The ORR track athletes have provided the community with one of the most successful programs at the school on the state and national level. The Mattapoisett Track Club has introduced area young people to track and field for many years. It is one of the few programs that ANYONE can participate in Tuesday, July 25 from 7-9 pm in the Selectmen's meeting room at the Dartmouth Town Hall at 400 Slocum Road, North Dartmouth. This seminar, sponsored in part by the Mattapoisett Land Trust, is designed to educate landowners interested in learning more about estate and land-use planning techniques used to protect ecologically, agriculturally, or historically significant land holdings. The agenda includes Dan Guglielma, J.D. speaking on how land holdings affect the owner's estate as well as the financial and tax advantages of land gifts and conservation restrictions. He will also explain how Chapter 61 laws can help to reduce the landowners property taxes. Michael Labossiere of the Walden Forest Conservation will discuss the Massachusetts Forest Stewardship Program for land holders and Wesley Ward of the Trustees of Reservations will present a case study of Conservation Planning. A question and answer session will conclude the evening. Additional information on details of this free seminar can be obtained from the Mattapoisett Land Trust by calling Charles Duponte, 758-6508 or Martin Smith, 758-2140.

REACHING THE RIGHT BUYERS

It's true that today is a great time to sell your home. Financing is affordable and buyers are out there. Unfortunately, many sellers mistakenly assume that the difficulty in finding the RIGHT buyer for your home has decreased dramatically. Not so. If you try to sell your home yourself today, you still must face the usual difficulties. One of them is attracting the right people.

American entertainment scene for over 200 years, since 1793. During the 1920s and 1930s more than three dozen circuses travelled throughout the United States by horse drawn wagons, railroads and trucks. In 1955 about a dozen circuses are performing in various parts of the country. Each circus differs according to size, type of acts, ticket prices, relations with sponsors, etc. Vidbel's Olde Tyme Circus is different because it's owned and managed by a woman. Joyce Vidbel is the only woman to operate a traveling circus today. Her circus career started in the early 1950s as a performer with Ringling Bros. & Barnum and Bailey Circus. Since then she and her husband have travelled with many major circuses in the United States and Europe.

She still has the performers' interest at heart. For example, she doesn't allow concessions to be sold in her big top while the performance is going on. She feels nothing should detract from the efforts of performers to entertain the circus goers. Cotton candy, popcorn and other circus goodies are sold before and after each performance to the delight of young and old alike. Vidbel's Circus is coming to Mattapoisett on Tuesday, July 25. Their red and white striped big top will be set up at Mahoney's Field and performances will start at 6:00 pm and 8:15

In each town where Vidbel's Circus performs it is sponsored by a local non-profit organization which receives 50 percent of each advance ticket purchased and a percentage of tickets sold at the circus grounds on circus day. Joyce Vidbel describes her circus as "our families entertaining your families for two hours on circus day each year." During this 12th anniversary tour the Vidbel Family is confident they are providing wholesome family entertainment which is appreciated and needed in this "high tech" era.

On Friday, June 30 questionnaires were mailed out to citizens of Mattapoisett, aged 50 and over to determine what interest people might have in establishing a senior center in town. Individuals are strongly encouraged to return these questionnaires as promptly as possible either by mailing them, or by dropping them off outside the office of The Council on Aging at the Mattapoisett Town Hall. Results will then be shared with the Selectmen, as well as the public to determine whether or not to investigate available rental space and their costs. Mattapoisett Seniors Mini-Fair

The Mattapoisett Seniors' Club is continuing to work on plans for its only fundraiser of the year — a Mini-Fair, which will be held on August 12 from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm in St. Anthony's Church Hall.

Members and friends who wish to donate items for a Flea Market may call Manny Freitas at 758-4337 or Ms. Norma Jones, President, at 758-6574 about pick-ups.

In addition to the Flea Market, other highlights of the event will include a food table, coffee and a silent auction, and a plant and vegetable table. Books and magazines will also be sold.

Mattapoisett Birthday Calendars

The Mattapoisett Firefighters Association will be producing a 1996 Mattapoisett Birthday Calendar. Association members should be contacting you shortly to solicit calendar purchases and listings of your family and friends' birth dates.

For those unfamiliar with the project, the calendar is the same which until 1994 had been produced by the Mattapoisett Woman's Club. The calendar lists birth dates and anniversaries for each day of the year.

The calendars cost $5 each, which includes two listings. Additional listings can be purchased for 50 cents each.

week, is a real sweet calico who was abandoned with her kittens. She nursed them for six weeks, went to a foster home and nursed three abandoned kittens who lost their mom. She is spayed, vaccinated and just waiting for someone to now give her a chance. There are also several other adults including an older gray and white spayed declawed cat whose owner can no longer care for her. She is very young acting and still plays a lot. She is up to date on her shots. There is also a declawed neutered male and other calicos to choose from. If interested in these animals, please call one of the local Animal Umbrella representatives (unless otherwise noted):

- Mary Lou at 994-6168
- Priscilla at 758-2896.

'Animal Umbrella sends thanks to the students at Old Hammondtown Elementary School for their generous donation to the "feed the cats" fund. The children collected money in a can at the school for which Animal Umbrella is most grateful. The cats and kittens also appreciate it. Just a reminder, there are lots of adoptable dogs in the Fairhaven Animal Shelter. For more information, call Chris at 979-4028. For kitten lovers, this week, there are two healthy, eight-week-old kittens. One is a calico female and the second is a grey male.

In the Lost and Found department this week, there's a lost Siamese in the vicinity of the Holy Ghost grounds on Park Street. "Clarence" is a chocolate point, cross-eyed and is neutered. Anyone with information about the cats whereabouts, please call 758-2896 or 758-2526.

The VA is looking for companies to hire such workers. It will negotiate a contract with a company to provide workers at a flat rate, frequently slightly above minimum wage. Companies can save by hiring through the program because the VA handles payroll production, as well as Social Security, worker's compensation, and state and federal payroll tax deductions.
